About Me

Hi, I'm Paul Serrano, a senior at STI College Sta Matia with a strong passion for IT and technology. I've been diving into programming with languages like Python, C# and Java, and I'm excited about exploring areas like web development and cybersecurity. I'm actively involved in [Relevant Clubs/Extracurriculars], where I've had the chance to work on tech projects and collaborate with others.

I'm eager to further my knowledge and pursue a career in IT, and I look forward to connecting with others who share my enthusiasm for technology.
